

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

POST & SCHELL'S RICH MCMONIGLE AUTHORS 15TH EDITION OF INSURANCE BAD FAITH IN PENNSYLVANIA

Most comprehensive overview available of Pennsylvania insurance bad faith law, including analysis of court opinions and discussion of most significant verdicts in 2014

PHILADELPHIA, PA – January 22, 2015 – Post & Schell, P.C. is pleased to announce that American Lawyer Media (ALM)/The Legal Intelligencer have published and released the 15th Edition of Insurance Bad Faith in Pennsylvania, the authoritative resource for overview and analysis of bad faith cases in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Post & Schell Insurance Law Principal and book author Richard L. McMonigle, Jr. provides detailed summaries of all significant Pennsylvania bad faith decisions, the most significant verdicts of 2014 and examines every important issue relating to bad faith lawsuits under Pennsylvania's common law and under §8371 - Pennsylvania's "Bad Faith Statute."

"The year 2015 marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the passage of Pennsylvania's Bad Faith Statute," said Mr. McMonigle. "As perhaps most starkly illustrated by an $18 million punitive damages award handed down last year, currently on appeal, insurance bad faith litigation remains a dynamic and potentially volatile area in which to practice."

First published in 1999, the 15th Edition of Insurance Bad Faith in Pennsylvania includes:

- Over seventy new court opinions briefed and discussed
- Summaries of all significant bad faith cases, organized by category
- Discussion of:
 - Defense verdict in Rhodes vs. USAA
 - $1.4 million verdict in Grossi vs. Travelers
 - $1.9 million verdict in Davis sv. Fidelity National
- In-depth analysis of the hottest topics in the field:
 - Severance and Bifurcation in post-Koken UM and UIM claims
 - Latest developments in auto and homeowner's bad faith claims
 - Disputes over delay in payment and settlement negotiations
 - Recovery for compensatory and consequential damages

Mr. McMonigle's national practice focuses upon the defense and trial of first and third party insurance matters involving coverage issues, alleged bad faith, policyholder fraud, and life, health and disability claims. A veteran litigator, he also provides training to claims professionals and attorneys on the subject of good faith claims handling.

In addition to Insurance Bad Faith in Pennsylvania, Mr. McMonigle is also the co-author of Insurance Bad Faith in New Jersey, now in its 2nd Edition, the authoritative single volume collection of New Jersey Law on bad faith litigation.
